Every year to "celebrate" my diagnosis of MS, I hold a fundraiser down at Lucky Joe's Sidewalk Saloon. This one will be the big number nineteen. As usual well have a raffle and silent auction for everyone to enjoy.

How it works out is like this: I invite a bunch of people to come down to the bar, have drinks and relax. While I'm rolling my way around the bar pouring drinks with the help of the loyal bar staff, all the tips that are received go into the fund to be given to the Northern Colorado Chapter of the MS Society.

Over the last sixteen years we've raised just under $47,000 total in an hour and a half per year. With all that, the Northern Colorado MS Society was gracious enough to honor me as the MS Champion for 2010! All thanks to the inherent generosity of good folks!
